

Quizlet

English &
New 1-20

Class copy - Do
Not write on the test

201 Multiple choice questions

- telling the truth, even when the truth may be unpleasant or embarrassing
  - baffled
  - claim
  - refute
  - Candid
- a country or person you are fighting or competing against
  - advocate
  - Bedlam
  - adversary
  - foreshadow
- to refuse to admit something, agree to something, or acknowledge something; to say something isn't true
  - gaudy
  - revere
  - deny
  - vain
- shift
  - not moving or having the strength or power to move
  - to move
  - to have been shaved or cut
  - a place
- to improve something
  - avarice
  - enhance
  - Enthrall
  - galvanize

6. altruistic
  - A. a feeling of great love or worship; love, devotion and respect
  - B. showing you care about and will help other people, even though there is no advantage for yourself
  - C. very careful about small details and always making sure that everything is done carefully
  - D. ignoring individual differences to enforce uniformity or conformity

7. bellow
  - A. strong and healthy; full of vigor
  - B. to make up false or exaggerated stories.
  - C. to shout loudly in a deep voice
  - D. a short, low sound that is made by a chicken

8. Atrocity
  - A. deserving or able to be believed or trusted; something that is believable
  - B. to record and describe events in the order that they happened
  - C. an extremely cruel and violent action; something that is very cruel or brutal
  - D. an opponent or enemy that is likely to be impossible for you to deal with.

9. grimace
  - A. to express formal support or approval for someone or something
  - B. to make an unpleasant face to indicate displeasure or pain
  - C. to make up false or exaggerated stories.
  - D. criticizing; making judgments and finding fault with others

10. to make a good combination with someone or something else
  - A. complement
  - B. chronicle
  - C. implore
  - D. antagonize

11. a person or something that has tireless persistence
  - A. adoration
  - B. obliterated
  - C. skeptical
  - D. indefatigable

12. a place

- A. futile
- B. zenith
- C. site
- D. wary

13. static

- A. extremely determined and very strong; severe or stern
- B. tending to disagree with what others tell you
- C. to make up false or exaggerated stories.
- D. not moving, changing, or developing

14. steely

- A. a set of beliefs or principles, especially religious beliefs
- B. brave and determined
- C. extremely determined and very strong; severe or stern
- D. to communicate or express something with or without using words

15. Enthral

- A. to say or do something to make your wishes or intentions clear
- B. to hold someones attention as if they are in a spell
- C. to record and describe events in the order that they happened
- D. the ability to understand other people's problems and feelings

16. jubilant

- A. to make an unpleasant face to indicate displeasure or pain
- B. not likely to upset or embarrass other people
- C. believing that people only do things to serve their own needs
- D. extremely happy and pleased because of success

17. to talk or complain in a loud, excited, and rather confused way because you feel strongly about something

- A. ranted
- B. Candid
- C. creed
- D. fickle

18. not interested in something and not willing to make every effort to improve things
- A. appalled
  - B. galvanize
  - C. apathetic
  - D. adversary
19. to give support to an opinion, idea, or feeling and make it stronger
- A. reinforce
  - B. grimace
  - C. Romance
  - D. endorse
20. Procrustean
- A. behaving and speaking in a way that is rude or socially unacceptable
  - B. strange, unexpected, or unsuitable in a particular situation
  - C. ignoring individual differences to enforce uniformity or conformity
  - D. having the ability to think of new activities or ideas and make them work
21. resolve
- A. to express formal support or approval for someone or something
  - B. to find a satisfactory way of dealing with a problem or difficulty
  - C. to ask for something in an emotional way; to beg or plead
  - D. to make up false or exaggerated stories.
22. propose
- A. to suggest something as a plan or course of action
  - B. talking or behaving in a sad, silly and emotional way.
  - C. to deliberately encourage people to fight, argue, etc.
  - D. to describe something or someone in writing or speech
23. ideas or plans that are not practical and are based on unreasonable hopes of improving the world
- A. Quixotic
  - B. altruistic
  - C. charismatic
  - D. arrogant

24. claim

- A. a demand for something which is due; a statement made as a fact
- B. a short, low sound that is made by a chicken
- C. someone who is too proud of their good looks, abilities, or position
- D. covered with something

25. someone or something without bias or prejudice; based in facts, or making a decision that is based on facts rather than on your feelings or beliefs.

- A. assertive
- B. Apprehensive
- C. treacherous
- D. objective

26. to deliberately encourage people to fight, argue, etc.

- A. antics
- B. Maverick
- C. catastrophe
- D. incite

27. not caring that other people are suffering

- A. callous
- B. critical
- C. insight
- D. tenacious

28. praise

- A. compliment
- B. Herculean
- C. obliterated
- D. principle

29. someone or something with a compelling and charming personality or traits that are attractive or alluring to others

- A. capitulate
- B. apathetic
- C. charismatic
- D. assertive

30. vindictive
- A. not interested in something and not willing to make every effort to improve things
  - B. showing you care about and will help other people, even though there is no advantage for yourself
  - C. having or showing a desire to hurt someone who has hurt or caused problems for you
  - D. to say or do something to make your wishes or intentions clear
31. Blase
- A. to form an opinion that something is probably true because of information that you have
  - B. doing things too quickly without thinking carefully about whether or not it is sensible
  - C. not worried or excited about things that most people think are important, impressive, etc.
  - D. not embarrassed or ashamed about openly expressing strong feelings, opinions or emotions
32. behaving in a proud, unfriendly way; an arrogant person
- A. critical
  - B. haughty
  - C. depict
  - D. reproach
33. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
- A. callous
  - B. synthesis
  - C. contempt
  - D. Candid
34. contend
- A. full of energy and new ideas and determined to succeed
  - B. behavior that seems strange, funny, silly, or annoying
  - C. to compete against someone in order to gain something
  - D. not caring that other people are suffering
35. something done carefully and cautiously or slowly and carefully because you are afraid it will be dangerous or painful
- A. gaudy
  - B. gingerly
  - C. fickle
  - D. subjective

36. something that is based on a personal opinion; a statement, report, attitude, etc. that is influenced by personal opinion and can therefore be unfair

- A. contempt
- B. immeasurable
- C. subjective
- D. reflective

37. wallow

- A. to roll about or lie relaxed in mud, dust, or water
- B. to respect and admire someone or something very much
- C. not caring that other people are suffering
- D. to prove that a statement or idea is not correct; to prove untrue

38. capitulate

- A. someone who takes advantage of any opportunity to advance his own situation or to achieve a goal with no regard to principles or consequences
- B. to give up; to stop resisting; to agree or accept something that you have been opposing for a long time.
- C. to publicly support a particular way of doing something; to speak, write or stand up for something or someone
- D. to separate one group of people from others, especially because they are of a different sex, race or religion

39. Nemesis

- A. an opponent or enemy that is likely to be impossible for you to deal with.
- B. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
- C. actions that are worthless because they have no chance of being successful
- D. not worried or excited about things that most people think are important, impressive, etc.

40. believing that people only do things to serve their own needs

- A. cynical
- B. haughty
- C. contempt
- D. Candid

41. having the ability to think of new activities or ideas and make them work

- A. Enterprising
- B. intolerant
- C. vindictive
- D. Apprehensive

42. wrath

- A. great anger
- B. a very deep space between two areas of rock or ice
- C. feeling angry, jealous, & upset because you think you've been treated unfairly
- D. very calm or peaceful

43. behaving in a confident way so that people notice you or listen to you or listen to your opinions and ideas.

- A. Credible
- B. reflective
- C. Poised
- D. assertive

44. Romantic

- A. the ability to understand other people's problems and feelings
- B. someone who is not practical and bases ideas too much on imagination
- C. something said or written that mentions a subject, person, etc
- D. someone who is nice and friendly; polite and formal

45. a very deep space between two areas of rock or ice

- A. creed
- B. rebuke
- C. chasm
- D. genre

46. succinct

- A. thinking quietly about something
- B. tending to disagree with what others tell you
- C. clearly expressed in a few words
- D. able to express your ideas and opinions well, especially in a way that influences people

47. not embarrassed or ashamed about openly expressing strong feelings, opinions or emotions

- A. conceited
- B. unabashed
- C. synthesis
- D. intolerant

48. criticizing; making judgments and finding fault with others
- A. resolve
  - B. Enthrall
  - C. critical
  - D. haughty
49. to mention something as an example, especially one that supports, proves, or explains an idea or situation
- A. rash
  - B. objective
  - C. cite
  - D. advocate
50. having great size, strength, or courage; very powerful
- A. repentant
  - B. credulous
  - C. Herculean
  - D. conceited
51. someone who is unwilling to accept differences in opinions, other ideas, beliefs, religions
- A. intolerant
  - B. illustrious
  - C. capitulate
  - D. treacherous
52. to inspire or rouse someone to act
- A. adoration
  - B. colossal
  - C. galvanize
  - D. euphoria
53. the ability to understand other people's problems and feelings
- A. indicate
  - B. antics
  - C. empathetic
  - D. Mesmerize

54. to hate someone or something very much; intense dislike
- A. obliterated
  - B. Bedlam
  - C. Loathe
  - D. wallow
55. covered with something
- A. Blurt
  - B. dread
  - C. cluck
  - D. clad
56. timid
- A. shy and fearful; easily frightened
  - B. The highest peak or point
  - C. a short piece of writing about a person or place you knew
  - D. a category of art, music or literature
57. extremely unpleasant or bad; offensive to the senses or sensibilities
- A. cite
  - B. Poised
  - C. propose
  - D. vile
58. revere
- A. to respect and admire someone or something very much
  - B. to express formal support or approval for someone or something
  - C. to describe something or someone in writing or speech
  - D. a stern and harsh scolding or critique; reprimand
59. allusion
- A. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
  - B. being shocked, horrified, or disgusted by something unpleasant
  - C. something said or written that mentions a subject, person, etc
  - D. something that is bright and overly decorated, but overdone to the point of being tacky

60. obstinate
- A. clearly expressed in a few words
  - B. extremely determined and very strong; severe or stern
  - C. the head of a school
  - D. extremely stubborn
61. insipid
- A. to prove something is true or correct
  - B. to find a satisfactory way of dealing with a problem or difficulty
  - C. to express formal support or approval for someone or something
  - D. food or drink that does not have much taste
62. exposition
- A. a short-lived extreme attraction for someone
  - B. a clear and detailed explanation
  - C. the way that one looks at something
  - D. a feeling of great love or worship; love, devotion and respect
63. to prove that a statement or idea is not correct; to prove untrue
- A. refute
  - B. baffled
  - C. futile
  - D. antics
64. indicate
- A. to say or do something to make your wishes or intentions clear
  - B. to record and describe events in the order that they happened
  - C. having or showing a desire to hurt someone who has hurt or caused problems for you
  - D. to express formal support or approval for someone or something 65. rue
- A. to find a satisfactory way of dealing with a problem or difficulty
  - B. showing or feeling sorry for wrongdoing
  - C. to wish you had not done something
  - D. to make up false or exaggerated stories.

66. feeling sympathy for people who are suffering; someone who shows kindness and empathy for others
- A. complement
  - B. compassionate
  - C. altruistic
  - D. antagonize
67. spectacle
- A. a fundamental belief
  - B. a very impressive show
  - C. very sad; gloomy
  - D. friendly and happy; cheerful
68. colossal
- A. very large or great; massive and huge
  - B. to make up false or exaggerated stories.
  - C. something too big or extreme to be measured
  - D. not likely to upset or embarrass other people
69. a terrible event in which there is a lot of destruction, suffering, or death
- A. contend
  - B. catastrophe
  - C. Romantic
  - D. resourceful
70. tending to disagree with what others tell you
- A. Herculean
  - B. Mesmerize
  - C. Enthrall
  - D. skeptical
71. a. someone who cannot be trusted because they are not loyal and secretly intend to harm you
- grounds, roads, weather conditions that are very dangerous because you cannot see the dangers very easily
- A. reaffirm
  - B. treacherous
  - C. reverberation
  - D. illustrious

72. not clearly or exactly

- A. vaguely
- B. subdued
- C. endorse
- D. prudent

73. validate

- A. to speak in an angry & critical way to someone
- B. to prove something is true or correct
- C. to hate someone or something very much; intense dislike
- D. to say something quickly without thinking

74. uncouth

- A. to refuse to buy, use or take part in something as a way of protesting
- B. behavior that seems strange, funny, silly, or annoying
- C. having a lot of energy & a happy, attractive manner
- D. behaving and speaking in a way that is rude or socially unacceptable

75. wane

- A. someone, especially an old man, who is very wise.
- B. to mention something as an example, especially one that supports, proves, or explains an idea or situation
- C. when the moon appears to become thinner or less full. decline in size
- D. a demand for something which is due; a statement made as a fact

76. critique

- A. to publicly support a particular way of doing something; to speak, write or stand up for something or someone

B.

a piece of written criticism of a set of ideas, a work of art, etc., a detailed explanation of the problems of something such as a set of political ideas or a book.

- C. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect

D.

something that is based on a personal opinion; a statement, report, attitude, etc. that is influenced by personal opinion and can therefore be unfair

77. strong and healthy; full of vigor

- A. robust
- B. refute
- C. jovial
- D. callous

78. words, remarks, or jokes that are rude and offensive

- A. Blurt
- B. haughty
- C. bitter
- D. vulgar

79. a short, low sound that is made by a chicken

- A. bellow
- B. Blurt
- C. cluck
- D. vulgar

80. kind and polite

- A. gallant
- B. arrogant
- C. avarice
- D. galvanize

81. a stern and harsh scolding or critique; reprimand

- A. rebuke
- B. serial
- C. steely
- D. musing

82. ideas, methods, or behavior that are accepted by most to be correct & right

- A. eloquent
- B. tenacious
- C. Atrocity
- D. orthodox

83. indignation

- A. ideas or plans that are not practical and are based on unreasonable hopes of improving the world
- B. a combining a number of different parts or ideas to come up with a new theory or idea
- C. to destroy something so completely that nothing is left
- D. anger about something thought of as unfair, mean, or unjust; anger or scorn that is a reaction to injustice, ingratitude, or meanness

84. melancholy

- A. great anger
- B. persistent in maintaining or achieving something valued or desired
- C. very sad; gloomy
- D. very large or great; massive and huge

85. labyrinth

- A. a place that has many confusing paths or passages
- B. having great size, strength, or courage; very powerful
- C. criticizing; making judgments and finding fault with others
- D. talking or behaving in a sad, silly and emotional way.

86. clever and amusing; having a clever and funny way with words

- A. dread
- B. aloof
- C. claim
- D. Witty

87. disdain

- A. a combining a number of different parts or ideas to come up with a new theory or idea
- B. to speak in an angry or critical way to someone who has done something wrong
- C. to formally state an opinion, belief, or intention again, especially when someone has questioned you or expressed a doubt.
- D. a complete lack of respect that you show for someone or something because you think they are not important or good enough

88. baffled
- A. someone who is confused by something and not sure of what is going on
  - B. an opponent or enemy that is likely to be impossible for you to deal with.
  - C. to speak in an angry or critical way to someone who has done something wrong
  - D. work that is continuous and unpleasant, and lasts for a long time
89. someone who is nice and friendly; polite and formal
- A. Cordial
  - B. skeptical
  - C. Enthral
  - D. serial
90. inarticulate
- A. not able to express your feeling clearly or easily
  - B. someone who is vain or has an enlarged ego of himself
  - C. to destroy something so completely that nothing is left
  - D. to hold someone's attention as if they are in a spell
91. very careful about small details and always making sure that everything is done carefully
- A. relentless
  - B. conspicuous
  - C. meticulous
  - D. facetious
92. extremely annoying or unpleasant
- A. insufferable
  - B. colossal
  - C. reverberation
  - D. spectacle
93. quaver
- A. feeling angry, jealous, & upset because you think you've been treated unfairly
  - B. to laugh quietly & in a way that is not nice at something that is not supposed to be funny
  - C. when your voice shakes, trembles or expresses uncertainty because you are nervous or upset
  - D. when the moon appears to become thinner or less full. decline in size

94. The highest peak or point

- A. sallied
- B. serene
- C. zenith
- D. plucky

95. something too big or extreme to be measured

- A. immeasurable
- B. allusion
- C. subjective
- D. indefatigable

96. the way in which words are put together to form phrases, clauses, or sentences or the rules of grammar which control this

- A. synthesis
- B. fickle
- C. assert
- D. syntax

97. infatuation

- A. a short-lived extreme attraction for someone
- B. a short, low sound that is made by a chicken
- C. a person or something that has tireless persistence
- D. a short piece of writing about a person or place you knew

98. chronicle

- A. to speak in an angry & critical way to someone
- B. to hold the attention of; transfix; captivate
- C. to record and describe events in the order that they happened
- D. to express formal support or approval for someone or something

99. a person's character traits which make him likely to behave or react in a certain way

- A. Procrustean
- B. allusion
- C. disposition
- D. Apprehensive

100. to laugh quietly & in a way that is not nice at something that is not supposed to be funny
- A. skittish
  - B. uncouth
  - C. snicker
  - D. quaver
101. an animal, especially a horse, that gets excited or frightened very easily
- A. skeptical
  - B. skittish
  - C. assertive
  - D. reaffirm
102. wary
- A. shy and fearful; easily frightened
  - B. on one's guard; suspicious
  - C. clever and amusing; having a clever and funny way with words
  - D. friendly and happy; cheerful
103. dynamic
- A. full of energy and new ideas and determined to succeed
  - B. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
  - C. to communicate or express something with or without using words
  - D. to speak in an angry or critical way to someone who has done something wrong
104. to describe something or someone in writing or speech
- A. insight
  - B. depict
  - C. reproach
  - D. serial
105. a severe effect that is caused by a particular event & continues for a long time
- A. reverberation
  - B. obliterated
  - C. Procrustean
  - D. resentment

106. a tendency to believe that bad things will happen

- A. adversary
- B. principle
- C. pessimism
- D. relentless

107. context

A. believing that people only do things to serve their own needs

B.

The words that surround other words and impact their meaning; the words that come just before a word or sentence and that help you understand its meaning

C. something that looks very expensive & is designed to make people think that the owner is very rich

D.

someone or something without bias or prejudice; based in facts, or making a decision that is based on facts rather than on your feelings or beliefs.

108. lucid

A. shy and fearful; easily frightened

B. thinking about something very carefully or thoroughly

C. connected with things that have to do with disease or death

D. very clear and easy to understand; easily understood

109. thinking quietly about something

A. altruistic

B. reflective

C. validate

D. perspective

110. subdued

A. telling the truth, even when the truth may be unpleasant or embarrassing

B. extremely happy and pleased because of success

C. to wish you had not done something

D. a mood that has been calm or quieted

111. to rush or come out suddenly
- A. sallied
  - B. baffled
  - C. galvanize
  - D. gallant
112. to state firmly that something is true; to make a statement with full confidence of its truth and factuality
- A. assess
  - B. quaver
  - C. infer
  - D. assert
113. to annoy someone very much by doing something that they do not like
- A. Mesmerize
  - B. resolve
  - C. antagonize
  - D. chronicle
114. synthesis
- A. a person's character traits which make him likely to behave or react in a certain way
  - B. a combining a number of different parts or ideas to come up with a new theory or idea
  - C. behaving in a calm, confident way and able to control your feelings and reactions
  - D. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
115. credulous
- A. believing that people only do things to serve their own needs
  - B. strict, cruel, or determined without ever stopping
  - C. strange, unexpected, or unsuitable in a particular situation
  - D. tending to believe too readily or easily; easily convinced
116. obliterated
- A. not able to express your feeling clearly or easily
  - B. to prove something is true or correct
  - C. to ask for something in an emotional way; to beg or plead
  - D. to destroy something so completely that nothing is left

117. a situation where there is a lot of noise because people are angry, confused, or frightened
- A. pandemonium
  - B. disposition
  - C. vindictive
  - D. synthesis
118. serene
- A. to improve something
  - B. to rush or come out suddenly
  - C. the head of a school
  - D. very calm or peaceful
119. convey
- A. to prove that a statement or idea is not correct; to prove untrue
  - B. work that is continuous and unpleasant, and lasts for a long time
  - C. to communicate or express something with or without using words
  - D. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
120. advocate
- A. to publicly support a particular way of doing something; to speak, write or stand up for something or someone
  - B. behaving and speaking in a way that is rude or socially unacceptable
  - C. to laugh quietly & in a way that is not nice at something that is not supposed to be funny
  - D. to mention something as an example, especially one that supports, proves, or explains an idea or situation
121. conceited
- A. someone who takes advantage of any opportunity to advance his own situation or to achieve a goal with no regard to principles or consequences
  - B. someone who is always changing their minds about people they may or may not like, so you can't depend on them.
  - C. someone who is unwilling to accept differences in opinions, other ideas, beliefs, religions
  - D. someone who is vain or has an enlarged ego of himself
122. bias
- A. an opinion about whether a person, group, or idea is good or bad that influences how you deal with it
  - B. treating people and/or animals in a way that is not cruel and causes them as little suffering as possible
  - C. to speak in an angry or critical way to someone who has done something wrong
  - D. when the moon appears to become thinner or less full. decline in size

123. opportunist

- A. someone who is vain or has an enlarged ego of himself
- B. someone who takes advantage of any opportunity to advance his own situation or to achieve a goal with no regard to principles or consequences
- C. someone who is unwilling to accept differences in opinions, other ideas, beliefs, religions
- D. someone who is always changing their minds about people they may or may not like, so you cant depend on them.

124. vain

- A. someone, especially an old man, who is very wise.
- B. someone who is too proud of their good looks, abilities, or position
- C. when the moon appears to become thinner or less full. decline in size
- D. something said or written that mentions a subject, person, etc

125. not moving or having the strength or power to move

- A. static
- B. wallow
- C. inert
- D. revere

126. having a lot of energy & a happy, attractive manner

- A. facetious
- B. antics
- C. vivacious
- D. credulous

127. being able to see or understand something clearly

- A. cynical
- B. insight
- C. antics
- D. indicate

128. endorse

- A. behaving and speaking in a way that is rude or socially unacceptable
- B. to suggest that something is true without saying this directly
- C. to express formal support or approval for someone or something
- D. able to express your ideas and opinions well, especially in a way that influences people

129. sheepish

- A. an extremely cruel and violent action; something that is very cruel or brutal
- B. someone or something without bias or prejudice; based in facts, or making a decision that is based on facts rather than on your feelings or beliefs.
- C. a short entertaining story based on a personal experience; a brief, often funny story of something that happened
- D. slightly uncomfortable or embarrassed because you know you have done something silly or wrong

130. toiled

- A. when your voice shakes, trembles or expresses uncertainty because you are nervous or upset
- B. work that is continuous and unpleasant, and lasts for a long time
- C. actions that are worthless because they have no chance of being successful
- D. someone who is confused by something and not sure of what is going on

131. showing or feeling sorry for wrongdoing

- A. repentant
- B. foreshadow
- C. Romance
- D. reproach

132. Maudlin

- A. food or drink that does not have much taste
- B. arranged or happening one after the other in the correct order
- C. talking or behaving in a sad, silly and emotional way.
- D. not likely to upset or embarrass other people

133. tyrannical

- A. the ability to understand other people's problems and feelings
- B. behaving in a cruel and unfair way towards someone you have power over
- C. behaving in an unpleasant or rude way because you think you are more important than other people
- D. a feeling of great love or worship; love, devotion and respect

134. to make a judgement about a person or situation after thinking carefully about it; to evaluate or analyze; judge

- A. assess
- B. musing
- C. endorse
- D. assertive

135. resourceful
- A. good at finding ways to deal with problems
  - B. ignoring individual differences to enforce uniformity or conformity
  - C. strict, cruel, or determined without ever stopping
  - D. not likely to upset or embarrass other people
136. sensible and careful, especially by trying to avoid unnecessary risks
- A. grimace
  - B. resentment
  - C. quaver
  - D. prudent
137. rash
- A. to talk or complain in a loud, excited, and rather confused way because you feel strongly about something
  - B. to speak in an angry or critical way to someone who has done something wrong
  - C. doing things too quickly without thinking carefully about whether or not it is sensible
  - D. behaving in a calm, confident way and able to control your feelings and reactions
138. optimism
- A. to express formal support or approval for someone or something
  - B. the tendency to believe that good things will always happen
  - C. to make a good combination with someone or something else
  - D. behavior that seems strange, funny, silly, or annoying
139. persistent in maintaining or achieving something valued or desired
- A. chronicle
  - B. adoration
  - C. incongruous
  - D. tenacious
140. anecdote
- A. to separate one group of people from others, especially because they are of a different sex, race or religion
  - B. persistent in maintaining or achieving something valued or desired
  - C. someone or something without bias or prejudice; based in facts, or making a decision that is based on facts rather than on your feelings or beliefs.
  - D. a short entertaining story based on a personal experience; a brief, often funny story of something that happened

141. connected with things that have to do with disease or death
- A. musing
  - B. toiled
  - C. convey
  - D. Morbid
142. strange, unexpected, or unsuitable in a particular situation
- A. credulous
  - B. incongruous
  - C. insufferable
  - D. conspicuous
143. Blurt
- A. a category of art, music or literature
  - B. to say something quickly without thinking
  - C. to suggest that something is true without saying this directly
  - D. very clear and easy to understand; easily understood
144. illustrious
- A. having the ability to think of new activities or ideas and make them work
  - B. a joke made about something serious; saying things that are intended to be clever and funny but are silly, annoying, or inappropriate
  - C. something that looks very expensive & is designed to make people think that the owner is very rich
  - D. famous and admired because of what you have achieved someone well known and respected for a skill in a particular field
145. principal
- A. very easy to notice
  - B. unhappy and annoyed
  - C. The highest peak or point
  - D. the head of a school

146. someone, especially an old man, who is very wise.

- A. toiled
- B. Loathe
- C. sage
- D. wallow

147. brave and determined

- A. principle
- B. Blase
- C. plucky
- D. zenith

148. someone who guides another, especially an older more experienced person

- A. conceited
- B. bitter
- C. Candid
- D. Mentor

149. Maverick

- A. an opponent or enemy that is likely to be impossible for you to deal with.
- B. an unbranded animal; an unusual person who has different ideas.
- C. to record and describe events in the order that they happened
- D. arranged or happening one after the other in the correct order

150. friendly and happy; cheerful

- A. avarice
- B. robust
- C. jubilant
- D. jovial

151. mercurial

- A. changing moods quickly and often; used to describe someone who changes from being happy to being angry and upset in a quick and unexpected way
- B. tending to believe too readily or easily; easily convinced
- C. a feeling of great happiness and excitement
- D. believing that people only do things to serve their own needs

152. treating people and/or animals in a way that is not cruel and causes them as little suffering as possible
- A. pompous
  - B. prudent
  - C. snicker
  - D. humane
153. friendly; sociable, and preferring to be with other people; people that are social and are found of being in the company of others
- A. charismatic
  - B. sheepish
  - C. Gregarious
  - D. objective
154. to suggest that something is true without saying this directly
- A. imply
  - B. cynical
  - C. refute
  - D. gaudy
155. memoir
- A. a stern and harsh scolding or critique; reprimand
  - B. work that is continuous and unpleasant, and lasts for a long time
  - C. arranged or happening one after the other in the correct order
  - D. a short piece of writireng about a person or place you knew 156. euphoria
- A. a place that has many confusing paths or passages
  - B. the ability to understand other people's problems and feelings
  - C. to ask for something in an emotional way; to beg or plead
  - D. a feeling of great happiness and excitement
157. to make up false or exaggerated stories.
- A. ranted
  - B. subdued
  - C. Romance
  - D. complement

158. tactful
- A. not likely to upset or embarrass other people
  - B. not clearly or exactly
  - C. to make an unpleasant face to indicate displeasure or pain
  - D. behavior that seems strange, funny, silly, or annoying
159. to show or say something that will happen in the future
- A. inarticulate
  - B. charismatic
  - C. foreshadow
  - D. empathetic
160. genre
- A. shy and fearful; easily frightened
  - B. a feeling of great happiness and excitement
  - C. a category of art, music or literature
  - D. to hate someone or something very much; intense dislike
161. Apprehensive
- A. upset or worried about some future event or about the possibility that something may happen
  - B. a severe effect that is caused by a particular event & continues for a long time
  - C. someone who is unwilling to accept differences in opinions, other ideas, beliefs, religions
  - D. someone or something with a compelling and charming personality or traits that are attractive or alluring to others
162. resentment
- A. showing or feeling sorry for wrongdoing
  - B. believing that people only do things to serve their own needs
  - C. a feeling of anger because something has happened that you think unfair
  - D. something said or written that mentions a subject, person, etc 163. Poised
- A. behaving in a calm, confident way and able to control your feelings and reactions
  - B. feeling angry, jealous, & upset because you think you've been treated unfairly
  - C. work that is continuous and unpleasant, and lasts for a long time
  - D. behaving and speaking in a way that is rude or socially unacceptable

164. conspicuous
- A. very calm or peaceful
  - B. to say or do something to make your wishes or intentions clear
  - C. very easy to notice
  - D. to make a good combination with someone or something else
165. serial
- A. a situation where there is a lot of noise and confusion
  - B. connected with things that have to do with disease or death
  - C. to make an unpleasant face to indicate displeasure or pain
  - D. arranged or happening one after the other in the correct order
166. being shocked, horrified, or disgusted by something unpleasant
- A. arrogant
  - B. sallied
  - C. appalled
  - D. Poised
167. strict, cruel, or determined without ever stopping
- A. relentless
  - B. intolerant
  - C. conceited
  - D. Herculean
168. principle
- A. a fundamental belief
  - B. very easy to notice
  - C. the head of a school
  - D. not clearly or exactly
169. reproach
- A. tending to disagree with what others tell you
  - B. to give support to an opinion, idea, or feeling and make it stronger
  - C. to speak in an angry & critical way to someone
  - D. to hold someones attention as if they are in a spell

170. woe

- A. when the moon appears to become thinner or less full. decline in size
- B. to wish you had not done something
- C. very sad; gloomy
- D. great sadness

171. to formally state an opinion, belief, or intention again, especially when someone has questioned you or expressed a doubt.

- A. reaffirm
- B. reinforce
- C. baffled
- D. segregate

172. infer

- A. to suggest that something is true without saying this directly to formally state an opinion, belief, or intention again, especially when someone has questioned you or expressed a doubt.

B.

- C. not worried or excited about things that most people think are important, impressive, etc.
- D. to form an opinion that something is probably true because of information that you have

173. dread

- A. doing things too quickly without thinking carefully about whether or not it is sensible
- B. to hate someone or something very much; intense dislike
- C. to feel anxious or worried about something that is going to happen or may happen
- D. to laugh quietly & in a way that is not nice at something that is not supposed to be funny

174. adoration

- A. ignoring individual differences to enforce uniformity or conformity
- B. something said or written that mentions a subject, person, etc
- C. a feeling of great love or worship; love, devotion and respect
- D. a feeling of great happiness and excitement

175. to ask for something in an emotional way; to beg or plead

- A. callous
- B. wallow
- C. implore
- D. enhance

176. to have been shaved or cut

- A. enhance
- B. cluck
- C. inert
- D. shorn

177. upbraid

- A. to speak in an angry & critical way to someone
- B. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
- C. to speak in an angry or critical way to someone who has done something wrong
- D. to separate one group of people from others, especially because they are of a different sex, race or religion

178. outrage

- A. extreme anger; a strong feeling of unhappiness because of something bad, hurtful, or morally wrong
- B. actions that are worthless because they have no chance of being successful
- C. to make an unpleasant face to indicate displeasure or pain
- D. to separate one group of people from others, especially because they are of a different sex, race or religion

179. to wait for an accost a person

- A. bellow
- B. ranted
- C. wallow
- D. waylay

180. deserving or able to be believed or trusted; something that is believable

- A. resentment
- B. allusion
- C. credulous
- D. Credible

181. aloof

- A. to record and describe events in the order that they happened
- B. behaving in a proud, unfriendly way; an arrogant person
- C. unfriendly and deliberately not talking to her people
- D. talking or behaving in a sad, silly and emotional way.

182. segregate
- A. upset or worried about some future event or about the possibility that something may happen
  - B. to separate one group of people from others, especially because they are of a different sex, race or religion
  - C. something done carefully and cautiously or slowly and carefully because you are afraid it will be dangerous or painful
  - D. to mention something as an example, especially one that supports, proves, or explains an idea or situation
183. to refuse to buy, use or take part in something as a way of protesting
- A. Boycott
  - B. pompous
  - C. implore
  - D. baffled
184. a greedy desire to have a lot of money
- A. avarice
  - B. endorse
  - C. subdued
  - D. Loathe
185. something that is bright and overly decorated, but overdone to the point of being tacky
- A. vain
  - B. gaudy
  - C. imply
  - D. Witty
186. to hold the attention of; transfix; captivate
- A. galvanize
  - B. reinforce
  - C. Mesmerize
  - D. conceited
187. a set of beliefs or principles, especially religious beliefs
- A. revere
  - B. creed
  - C. inert
  - D. cluck

188. disgruntled
- A. unhappy and annoyed
  - B. very easy to notice
  - C. a short-lived extreme attraction for someone
  - D. behaving in a proud, unfriendly way; an arrogant person
189. able to express your ideas and opinions well, especially in a way that influences people
- A. succinct
  - B. resolve
  - C. prudent
  - D. eloquent
190. someone who thinks they are important and shows this by using long words and being very formal
- A. callous
  - B. pompous
  - C. Romance
  - D. opportunist
191. the way that one looks at something
- A. Mesmerize
  - B. perspective
  - C. principal
  - D. reflective
192. behavior that seems strange, funny, silly, or annoying
- A. haughty
  - B. Candid
  - C. antics
  - D. depict
193. ostentatious
- A. something too big or extreme to be measured
  - B. something said or written that mentions a subject, person, etc
  - C. someone who thinks they are important and shows this by using long words and being very formal
  - D. something that looks very expensive & is designed to make people think that the owner is very rich

194. feeling angry, jealous, & upset because you think you've been treated unfairly

- A. bitter
- B. assert
- C. humane
- D. quaver

195. to put on a piece of clothing

- A. clad
- B. don
- C. jovial
- D. deny

196. fickle

- A.
someone or something without bias or prejudice; based in facts, or making a decision that is based on facts rather than on your feelings or beliefs.
- B.
someone who is always changing their minds about people they may or may not like, so you cant depend on them.
- C.
someone who takes advantage of any opportunity to advance his own situation or to achieve a goal with no regard to principles or consequences
- D. someone who is too proud of their good looks, abilities, or position

197. facetious

- A. something that looks very expensive & is designed to make people think that the owner is very rich
- B.
a short entertaining story based on a personal experience; a brief, often funny story of something that happened
- C.
someone who is always changing their minds about people they may or may not like, so you cant depend on them.
- D.
a joke made about something serious; saying things that are intended to be clever and funny but are silly, annoying, or inappropriate

198. thinking about something very carefully or thoroughly

- A. rebuke
- B. musing
- C. Loathe
- D. futile

199. behaving in an unpleasant or rude way because you think you are more important than other people

- A. haughty
- B. uncouth
- C. assertive
- D. arrogant

200. futile

- A. actions that are worthless because they have no chance of being successful
- B. extreme anger; a strong feeling of unhappiness because of something bad, hurtful, or morally wrong
- C. a feeling that someone or something is not important and deserves no respect
- D. feeling angry, jealous, & upset because you think you've been treated unfairly

201. a situation where there is a lot of noise and confusion

- A. claim
- B. toiled
- C. Bedlam
- D. serial